RA 01

Yellow is considered as the most optimistic color. Yet surprisingly, people lose their tempers more often in yellow rooms and babies cry more in them. The reason may be that yellow is the hardest color for eyes to take in. So it can be overpowering if overused.

RA 02

The elephant is the largest living land mammal. During evolution, its skeleton has greatly altered from the actual mammal, designed for two main reasons. One is to cope with the great weight of huge grinding cheek teeth and elongated tusks making the jaw particularly massive. The other is to support the enormous bulk of such a huge body.

RA 03

Teenage girls are continuing to outperform boys in English while the gender gap in achievements in math and science has almost disappeared. The figures show that last year 80% of 14-year-old girls reached at least the expected level 5 in English, compared with 65% of boys. But in math, the girls are just 1% ahead of boys, while in science the difference is 2%.

RA 04

The University of Liverpool will provide you with an inspiring student experience, in a diverse international community.

RA 05

Schools host parent teacher conferences four times a year and it is important for families to attend. This is your chance to meet with teachers and ask questions about your child's progress. It can be helpful to write down questions ahead of time.

RA 06

Hundreds of millions of American people eat fast food every day without giving it too much thought, unaware of the subtle and not so subtle ramifications of their purchases. They just grab their tray off the counter, find a table, take a seat, unwrap the paper, and dig in. The whole experience is transitory and soon forgotten.

RA 07

The best time to visit Canada is during fall months, when mild temperatures and vibrant fall foliage make scenic drives, hiking, and outdoor exploration especially enjoyable. Travel guides often highlight autumn-especially from late September through October-as a peak season for color changes in Ontario, Quebec, and other regions of the country.

Prompt: Your friend Jim is moving furniture this weekend. He originally asked you to help, but now your boss has asked you to work overtime to complete a task. I'm really sorry, due to work commitments, I am unable to be there. Additionally, I have limited transportation options at the moment and have pressing family responsibilities that require my attention.

I am really sorry I can't be there to help in person. However, if there are other ways I can support you, such as helping with packing or offering to coordinate with someone else who might assist, please let me know.

Thanks again for understanding, and best of luck with the move!

I am really sorry for not being able to attend. Your invitation means a lot to me, and I regret that I can't be there.

Prompt: You are a member of a sports club and you are writing to the club manager Mrs. Singh to make some suggestions on how to hold a party. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

- Music
- Food
- Games

Sample Answer

Mrs. Singh,

I hope you're doing well. As we prepare for the upcoming sports club party, I'd like to suggest a few ideas to make it lively and memorable.

For music, we could create an upbeat playlist or hire a local DJ who can take requests and keep the atmosphere energetic throughout the event.

For food, offering a mix of finger foods, sandwiches, and vegetarian options would cater to different preferences. A food truck or catering service could add variety and convenience.

We could also include activities such as quiz games, relay races, or a mini-tournament to encourage interaction and team spirit.

Thanks for considering these ideas. I'm excited for a great event!

Best regards,
Alex Thompson

Prompt: You live on the second floor of an apartment building with no elevator. There is only one weak light bulb at the entrance of the building and there is no light by the stairs. Please write an email to express these difficulties. You should write at least 100 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

- Install more lights
- Brighter lights
- Motion sensing lighting

Sample Answer

Dear Mr. Thompson,

I hope you are doing well. I am writing to share a concern about the lighting in our apartment building. I live on the second floor, and it is very dark at night.

There is only one small light at the entrance, and it does not give enough light. It is hard to see clearly, which can be unsafe.

There are also no lights near the stairs. This makes it difficult to walk up, especially when carrying bags or packages.

Could we please have brighter lights and install more along the stairs? Motion-sensing lights would also help and save electricity.

Thank you for your time and support.

Best regards,
Emily Carter
